Ukulele Project

Our ukulele players teamed up with the ukulele players from the Age UK band, part of the London Ukulele Project. Our players Ollie Y6, Sophie Y4, Skye Y4 and Henry played various songs including Blue Suede Shoes where Sophie sang a solo and Ollie played the 12 part blue. Age UK were blown away by their talent and are looking forward to watching them when they play at the Twickenham Exchange. Our ukulele players will also be visiting HomeLink, in Whitton and will play to the residents there.

Sewing Club

Sewing club news!

I am delighted to announce that there is a new member of our sewing club. It is a brand-new Brother sewing machine, which was bought from the funds collected from the small fee per pupil. The funds are used to buy materials, haberdashery, and other valuable resources to enable the children to create their designs. As I too love to sew, and have three machines myself, I saw how many had outgrown the small introductory machines. Therefore, I initially lent my Singer machine to see how the pupils would cope, and they amazed me with their desire to use it and they proved to be real naturals. This new machine is now a permanent Nelson resident and means they can create more adventurous projects and use different types of materials, 14 different stitch designs and so much more. Attaching zips is on my list to teach the pupils too as they become more confident.

Well done to all the sewing club pupils!

Swimming

This is the 2nd year of our in-school swimming lessons, and the children have had a great time. Learning to swim is a crucial life skill that can save lives and provide a lifetime of enjoyment. Ali from Year 6 said, "The instructors are good fun," while Xing Yu added, "I like being in a small group and have enjoyed swimming." Hamzah also shared, "The pool is nice and warm, and the instructors are really friendly."

Learning to swim is extremely important for kids because it's a vital life-saving skill that can prevent drowning accidents. Swimming also provides numerous health benefits, such as improved cardiovascular fitness, muscle strength, and mental well-being. Additionally, it aids in cognitive development, social skills, and self-confidence. Equipping children with water safety and survival skills from an early age is crucial for their overall safety and well-being.
